

Wellbeing and Health in the Community Certificate in Higher Education (Full-Time)

Supporting individual health and well-being is a crucial aspect of enabling people to achieve an enjoyable and fulfilling life. Working with people to improve their health, through education, support, treatment and professional guidance within a community setting can make a significant difference to people when they need it, whatever their age. You will develop an understanding of the theory underpinning individual health behaviour which will enhance the quality of support you provide for clients accessing community services.

This course is run in Partnership with the University of Wales Trinity Saint David.

UCAS Code: L574
