ABOUT CAREERS WALES

Careers Wales provides bi-lingual and independent careers information, advice, and guidance to support anyone in Wales making education or employment decisions.

We can help you make informed decisions about your future. We can guide you through the different options and decisions you will face.

Our careers advisers can provide you with online information, advice and guidance support. They are available through video call, over the phone or via webchat. Alternatively you can access this support through our national helpline on 0800 028 4844 between 9am and 5pm weekdays, via our website careerswales.gov.wales or you can follow us on social media.
